Dear Dorothy:

Thank you for your letter enclosing the photocopies of the South Carolina sheet. Unfortunately this is the sheet which I already have and I am returning the photocopies for your convenience.

Thank you for welcoming me to the Old Time Assayers Club.
My wife calls me "Assy", now.

Kindest personal regards.

Sincerely

Dear Dorothy:

I presume I will be on your list to receive the catalogue of Mrs. Osmun's holdings. I think the auction ought to be very lively.

Please bill me for prices realized with whatever I hope to buy.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dorothy:

I am enclosing my check for $279.00 to cover my account in your recent auction.

Would you be nice enough to send to me two price lists as soon as they are prepared.

I would very much appreciate it if you would forward to me for inspection and photocopy, the Massachusetts Bank proof sets, namely, Lots 1621 and 1625 and any additional Massachusetts Bank proof sheets which are coming up in the next auction. I want to include the pictures of them in the revision of my EARLY AMERICAN book. I suggest you send them in a mailing tube.

I understand there was a lot of excitement at the auction and you ought to get even more the next time.

Sincerely yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN NUMISMATIC

Dear Dorothy:

You asked our opinion as to the Massachusetts Bank sheets.

In view of the fact that the article in the 1926 NUMISMATIST mentions sheets ranging over a period from 1784 beyond 1800, and these sheets are produced on the same paper and with the same style of mounting, this tends to indicate they are reprints made early in the nineteenth century. We have never seen or heard of any proof sheets made in the eighteenth century of the style of these Massachusetts Bank sheets or on similar paper.

We would be interested in the opinion of others.

Thank you, very much, for forwarding the sheets for examination.

Sincerely yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN NUMISMATIC
